Howard University	Washington, District of Columbia
Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, cum laude	May 11, 2013

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Texas Appleseed	Austin, Texas
Education Justice Project Director	June 2020 - present
School-to-Prison Pipeline Project Director	June 2019 - May 2020

As a project director at Texas Appleseed, I work to dismantle the school-to-prison pipeline and fight for equal educational opportunities in the state of Texas - primarily through public policy advocacy. I also assist local organizations with campaigns to diminish the criminalization of Black and Brown children in schools throughout the state. In this role, I am particularly focused on removing police officers from schools across Texas in favor of more school psychologists and counselors. In the fall of 2019, along with Tyler Whittenberg of Advancement Project's National Office, I was named a Law for Black Lives Fellow.

Equity Action	Austin, Texas
Canvasser	October 2021 - November 2021

I worked as a canvasser for Equity Action to defeat Prop A on the City of Austin's ballot in November 2021. This initiative would've super-funded the Austin Police Department – and further eroded some of the racial justice victories won after the murders of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, and Tony McDade.

Advancement Project	Washington, District of Columbia
Staff Attorney	August 2017 - May 2019

As a staff attorney at Advancement Project, I supported the organization's Opportunity to Learn and Power & Democracy programs. I worked closely with various community-based organizations across the country in an attempt to secure racial justice through multiple strategic avenues. During my first six weeks in this role, I co-authored an amicus brief in support of the respondents in Husted v. APRI, a case before the Supreme Court during the October 2017 Term.

Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law
George N. Lindsay Fellow and Associate Counsel

Washington, District of Columbia
September 2016 - August 2017

I worked as a staff attorney in the Educational Opportunities Project of the Lawyers' Committee. I was primarily responsible for advancing the goals of the Parental Readiness and Empowerment Program, and I provided general support to senior staff attorneys. I assisted with the matter of The Coalition for Equity and Excellence in Maryland Higher Education, et al. v. Maryland Higher Education Commission, et al., and I worked closely with the Dignity in Schools Campaign.
